IF YOU WORK IN THE MEDIA, YOU DON'T NEED TO BE TOLD IT'S A TOUGH
WORLD OUT THERE

BUT HOW MUCH THOUGHT HAVE YOU GIVEN TO
YOUR OWN SAFETY, JOB
SECURITY AND TRAINING?

JOURNALISTS are trained to be independent. But sometimes we may need a little help.

That's one reason why membership of the Chartered Institute of Journalists is valuable.

In uncertain times it is good to know that help is just a phone call away.

Members have access to free legal advice - 24 hours a day, every day.

Our charities help members and their families who fall on hard times.

And social events, an annual conference and training are all part of your membership services.

Where else can you get as many benefits for less than the price of a takeaway a week?

...and get the
protection you need before anything happens!

EMPLOYMENT PROTECTION:

Through the Institute's independently-certified trade union arm.

A 24-HOUR LEGAL ADVICE LINE:

Advice on any matter 24-hours a day, 365 days a year.

OFFICIAL PRESS CARD:

Full and Trainee members receive the Police-accredited National Press Card.

INTERNATIONAL PRESS CARD:

For overseas assignments, or if you live or work overseas, choose a multi-lingual Press card.

REGULAR MAGAZINE:

The Journal, with news about our profession. Journa-list, the Institute's e-mail bulletin will also keep you informed.

HELP AND SUPPORT:

CIOJ charities help members, and their families, in need of support through hardship, redundancy, illness and more.

LETTERS:

Demonstrate your professional status with MCIJ after your name.

WHAT OUR MEMBERS SAY...

"...thank you for all the help and kind support you gave me with regard to the redundancy negotiations I've been forced to go through. Had I gone through them alone, I'm certain the package I'd have got would have been significantly less, which would have left me anxious, depressed and dissatisfied..."

"...I wanted to write to say how much I appreciate all the help the Institute has given me since I joined...advice is always well balanced and [with an] understanding of the emotional stress of such issues, as well as the practical and legal side..."
