NOTES

Student membership of the CIOJ is free for the duration of your course. The processing of applications from students on courses not accredited by the NCTJ may take a little longer if checks need to be made. Student members are not entitled to hold the National Press Card, but will receive a CIOJ Student Press card which is accepted by many public authorities as proof of the holder's bona fides. If your work is published or broadcast while on your course, you may be entitled to Trainee membership, which does include the right to hold the National Press Card. Please ask for details: 020 7252 1187.
